

Are you a clinician who works with children or pregnant women?

Sydney Local Health District
Public Health Unit invites you to

IMMUNISATION FORUM celebrating World Immunisation Week

Bringing together an exciting mix of experts and advocates to discuss international and local perspectives, strategies and current research, with a focus on maternal and neonatal vaccination.

Friday 6 May

Charles Perkins Centre Lecture Theatre

3pm – 5.30pm

and refreshments from 5.30pm–6pm

RSVP by Tuesday 3rd May to rsvp.slhd@sswhs.nsw.gov.au

Speakers include:

Jenni Bate,
Immunisation advocate, Light for Riley

Professor Peter McIntyre,
Director, National Centre for Immunisation Research and Surveillance

Dr Nicholas Wood,
National Centre for Immunisation Research and Surveillance

Dr Vicky Sheppard,
Director, Communicable Diseases, Health Protection NSW

Chris Crealy and Marion Innell,
Midwives, RPA.

Health
Sydney
Local Health District

Immunisation Forum Program
Topic	Speaker
Welcome and overview	Dr Teresa Anderson Sydney Local Health District Chief Executive
Immunisation: a consumer perspective	Ms Jenni Bate Immunisation Advocate, Light for Riley
Maternal vaccination: International and local perspectives on pertussis and influenza	Professor Peter McIntyre Director, National Centre for Immunisation Research & Surveillance
National Centre for Immunisation and Surveillance current research	Associate Professor Nicholas Wood Senior Clinical Research Fellow, National Centre for Immunisation Research and Surveillance
NSW pertussis vaccination strategy and current research	Dr Vicky Sheppard Director, Communicable Diseases Branch, NSW Health
Implementing an antenatal maternal pertussis vaccination program	Ms Christine Crealy Midwifery Unit Manager, Royal Prince Alfred Hospital Ms Marion Innell Clinical Midwife Consultant, Royal Prince Alfred Hospital
Panel Discussion	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Dr Leena Gupta (Chair) Prof. Peter McIntyre Dr Nicholas Wood Dr Vicky Sheppard Ms Jenni Bate Ms Christine Crealy
Drinks and light refreshments

